

Purpose of this form

Use this form if you would like to cancel your My Health Record registration. Submitting this form will notify the Australian Digital Health Agency, the System Operator under the My Health Records Act 2012, that you would like to cancel your My Health Record registration.

When we refer to 'System Operator' or 'we', this may also include delegates in the Department of Health, the Chief Executive Medicare and contracted service providers who help carry out our functions.

Cancellation of a My Health Record means the health information that is included in the My Health Record will be permanently deleted*. We will retain your name and Individual Healthcare Identifier (IHI) and the date the cancellation takes effect.

*Your health information may still be retained at the originating source (e.g. Medicare, hospital, medical clinic).

You can cancel your My Health Record:

- within your My Health Record (via myGov) or
- by completing and returning this form to:
My Health Record
GPO Box 9942
Sydney NSW 2000

When to use this form

Use this form if you want to cancel your own My Health Record, and you are 14 years of age or older.

For information on how to cancel a dependant's My Health Record, please call the My Health Record Help line on 1800 723 471 or visit www.myhealthrecord.gov.au

Documents you will need to provide

You must provide certified copies of your identity documents with this application. Information about which documents you will need to prove your identity are set out at the end of this form.

What does 'certified copy' mean?

A 'certified copy' of a document is a photocopy of an original document which has been endorsed by an appropriate person (see page 4) as being a true copy of the original. The certification must state that the appropriate person has sighted the original document and believes the copy to be a true copy of the original document. The person making the endorsing statement must sign the actual copy being submitted as part of your request. This signature cannot be photocopied. The person certifying your copies must include their full name, address, contact phone number and their qualifications on all copies that they certify for you.

Corresponding with you

If we need to contact you in writing, we will use the address recorded against your verified IHI. Your verified IHI address will be your Medicare mailing address held by Services Australia, or your mailing address held by the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA). To update this address, please call Services Australia on 132 011 or DVA on 133 254.

Privacy collection notice

The collection, use and disclosure of personal information in this form is authorised by the My Health Records Act 2012, the Healthcare Identifiers Act 2010 and the Privacy Act 1988.

If the information you provide in this form is incomplete, incorrect or illegible, we may not be able to accurately identify you. This means we may not be able to cancel your My Health Record.

If this is the case, we will attempt to contact you using the contact details you have provided in this form. However, if we are unable to contact you or you do not provide the information we require, then we may not be able to process your request.

Why we collect personal information

We use your personal information in this form for the following purposes:

- to verify your identity
- to check whether a My Health Record exists for you
- to cancel your My Health Record registration

What personal information is disclosed to cancel your My Health Record registration?

We will use the information in this form and information from Medicare to help verify your identity.

Your signature

By signing this form, I am notifying the My Health Record System Operator that I wish to cancel my My Health Record registration.

I understand:

- this action will permanently delete my My Health Record and the health information contained within it; however, my name, IHI and cancellation date will be retained, and
- the information in my My Health Record will no longer be available, even in the event of an emergency, and
- deleted information can't be retrieved, even if I choose to re-register with My Health Record in the future, and
- healthcare providers may have copies of my health information stored in their own record-keeping systems. Cancelling a My Health Record registration will not delete the copies stored in my healthcare providers' local system.

I declare that the information in this form is accurate and any supporting evidence submitted by me is correct.
